CONSOLIDATED LIST OF DEBTORS' CREDITORS HOLDING 20 LARGEST UNSECURED CLAIMS

Attached is a list of the creditors of the above-captioned debtors and debtors-in-possession (collectively, the "Debtors") holding the 20 largest unsecured claims presented on a consolidated basis for all of the Debtors. This list is prepared in accordance with Rule 1007(a) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure and Rule 1007-1 of the Local Bankruptcy Rules in connection with the filing of these cases under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code"). The list does not include: (1) persons who come within the definition of "insider" as set forth in section 101(31) of the Bankruptcy Code, and (2) secured creditors, unless the value of their collateral is such that the unsecured deficiency places the creditor among the holders of the 20 largest unsecured claims.

¹ This list sets forth the Debtors' 20 largest unsecured creditors based on the Debtors' records as of the filing of their chapter 11 petitions. However, expenses in the ordinary course of business that have accrued but have not yet been billed to the Debtors are not reflected on this list.

² The amounts set forth herein are estimated and subject to verification. In addition, the Debtors reserve all rights, remedies and defenses with respect to such claims. These claims should be deemed for these purposes as disputed, contingent and unliquidated.

³ The Debtors believe that the amount of their aggregate outstanding indebtedness to the Chase Manhattan Bank ("Chase"), as agent for a group of lenders, is the amount noted above. However, some or all of Chase's claim may be secured by assets of the Debtors. The Debtors will leave it up to Chase to assert the amount of their deficiency claim.
